4 Summarising Views and Making Recommendations

The Panel is asked to discuss and agree its views and recommendations on the budget proposals in relation to Child and Family Services which it would like to make to Cabinet.

The conveners of each of the performance panels will feed in the views of their panel to the Service Improvement and Finance Performance Panel which meets on 14 February and has been convened to specifically look at the draft budget. Chris Holley, Convener of the Service Improvement and Finance Performance Panel will then attend Cabinet on the 15 February to feed in the collective views of the scrutiny performance panels.
