

Report of the Convener of the Schools Performance Scrutiny Panel

Schools Scrutiny Performance Panel
27 September 2018

Briefing

The National Mission for Wales and an update on the new professional standards for teachers and school leaders

Purpose:	To look at the National Mission for Wales and an update on the new professional standards for teachers and Leaders
Content:	Briefing on the National Mission for Wales and an update on the new professional standards for teachers and Leaders
Councillors are being asked to:	Consider and discuss the information provided

1. Background

1.1 At the Work Planning meeting in May 2018 the panel asked for a briefing on the National Mission for Wales and an update on the new professional standards for teachers and school leaders to be scheduled in the panels work programme.

2. The Nation Mission for Wales and an Update on the new professional standards for teachers and school leaders

2.1 In attendance to discuss this with the panel will be Jan Waldron, Challenge Advisor.

2.3 Hard copies have been requested from the Welsh Government that will be circulated as soon as they arrive. In the meantime see below an online link to the document Education in Wales: Our National Mission
<https://beta.gov.wales/education-our-national-mission>