Section 1: Constituency activities

There are 4 surgeries held within the ward every month.

I regularly attended the Police and Communities Together (PACT) meetings which meet bimonthly in the ward.

I regularly meet with my ward colleague and carry out walkabouts in the ward to try and combat any fly-tipping and parking issues.

I have helped to set up Friends of Plasmarl Park and worked closely with the 4 community centres in our area.

I have held meetings with constituents to listen to their views on parking restrictions we are implementing.

Section 2: Councillor attendance at selected Council body meetings

Attendance at Council body meetings is only one of the important elements of a Councillor's duties. Councillors are also active by holding surgeries, attending meetings and dealing with general electoral division enquiries.

Governor at Plasmarl Primary and Hafod Primary.

Hafod Community Centre.

Police and Communities Together (PACT) meetings.

Friends of Plasmarl Park.

Section 4: Initiatives and Special activities

I have worked with Hafod Primary, Plasmarl Primary and the Highways department to ensure the pupils have a safe entry and exit from their schools.

We have implemented many Road Traffic Orders within the ward to help constituents with parking problems.

I have worked with the Enforcement department to try and alleviate the growing issues we have with fly tipping.
