6. Detail of the Work undertaken by the Standards Committee

6.1 The following paragraphs set out the work carried out by the Standards Committee during the reporting period.

6.2 Requests for Dispensation

6.2.1 The Committee considered requests for dispensation from 2 Councillors.

6.3 Public Services Ombudsman for Wales (PSOW) Annual Report and Accounts 2017-2018

6.3.1 The Committee discussed the report, which set out performance over the year including both complaints about public service providers as well as code of conduct complaints.

6.3.2 The Committee had regular briefings from the Monitoring Officer on cases which the PSOW had dealt with and which were reported in either the PSOW Casebook or the Adjudication Panel for Wales publications. The Monitoring Officer was also asked to liaise with the PSOW as the Committee felt that some reported cases lacked sufficient detail to understand the rationale for the PSOW not investigating.

6.3.3 In addition, the Committee discussed whether there was a role for the Standards Committee to assist in cases where Councillors who had been found to have breached the code of conduct but where the PSOW had decided to take no further action.

6.4 Annual Meeting with Political Group Leaders, Chairs of Committees and Chief Executive

6.4.1 The Standards Committee invite each Political Group Leader, the Chief Executive and a selection of Chairs to attend the Committee to seek their understanding and opinions on the work of the Committee.

6.4.2 The Leader of the Largest Opposition Group, Councillor C A Holley and the Leader of the Conservative Group were interviewed on 20 April 2018 which was in the previous Annual Reporting Year; however they were asked the same questions.

6.4.3 The Committee continued their discussions with the Political Group Leaders, Chairs of Committees and Chief Executive at the meetings held on 20 July 2018 and 16 November 2018.

6.4.4 The Committee interviewed Councillors Peter Black, Chair of Democratic Services Committee, Penny Matthews, Chair of General and Statutory Licensing Committee and Phil Roberts, Chief Executive.

6.4.5 The themes for discussion, which had been circulated in advance were as follows:

- 1) Do you consider that it is still appropriate to have a Code of Conduct in Wales, which applies to all councillors and co-opted members?
- 2) What do you understand the role of the Standards Committee to be?
- 3) Is there any work you feel the Standards Committee should be undertaking over the next year?
- 4) How can Political Group Leaders / Committee Chairs promote standards and good governance through Leadership?
- 5) How can the Standards Committee become more active in promoting ethical conduct among Councillors / Co-opted Members?
- 6) The Ombudsman, Adjudication Panel for Wales and the High Court has taken a view on politicians (and in some cases senior officers) having a “thick skin” and on political banter being part of the political landscape. What are your own views and how would you as a Political Group Leader ensure that the line is not crossed?
- 7) What are your views on the Authority’s Code of Conduct training? How could it be improved so as to raise the ethical standards of Councillors / Co-opted Members?
- 8) Training for Councillors / Co-opted Members is vitally important. How can the Standards Committee tackle those that do not see training as important?
- 9) The Authority’s Internal Dispute Resolution Process (IDRP)(Cllr v Cllr) has not yet been utilised. In the event of a dispute will you be encouraging your party to use the process? Do you consider the lack of referrals to the IDR demonstrates that councillors are behaving within the Code?
- 10) What is the future role of the Standards Committee?

6.4.6 The Committee welcomes these discussions and is very interested to hear the views and suggestions of all those invited to the sessions. The Committee feels that these sessions reinforce the role of Group Leaders and Committee chairs in ensuring good behaviour and compliance with the Code by all councillors. The Committee are not aware of any other standards committee who undertake a similar exercise and look forward to these informative sessions continuing.

There were 5 cases where the Ombudsman decided not to investigate an alleged breach of the Code of Conduct following a complaint.

b) Investigations completed by the Ombudsman where the decision was no evidence of breach or no action taken

There was 1 case where the Ombudsman investigated but found that there was no evidence of any failure to comply with the Code of Conduct.

c) Investigations undertaken by the Ombudsman where the decision was to discontinue the investigation

There were no cases where the Ombudsman had commenced an investigation and subsequently decided to discontinue that investigation.

d) Investigations under the provisions of Section 70 (4) of the Local Government Act 2000 – referred to the Standards Committee for consideration

Breaches of the Code of Conduct may be referred to the Monitoring Officer by the Ombudsman under the provisions of Section 69 (c) and 71(2) of the Local Government Act 2000 for consideration by the Standards Committee.
