86. Minutes.

Resolved that the following Minutes be approved and signed as a correct record:

- 1) Ceremonial Meeting of Council held on 28 October 2022.
- 2) Ordinary Meeting of Council held on 3 November 2022 subject to Councillor David Phillips being added to the list of apologies for absence.

87. Written Responses to Questions asked at the Last Ordinary Meeting of Council.

The Chief Legal Officer submitted an information report setting out the written responses to questions asked at the last Ordinary Meeting of Council.

88. Announcements of the Presiding Member.

a) Condolences

i) Former Councillor Huw Rees

The Presiding Member referred with sadness to the recent death of former Councillor Huw Rees. Huw represented the Sketty Ward on the City & County of Swansea from 6 May 1999 to 4 May 2017. Huw also served as Presiding Officer (Chair of Council).

All present stood as a mark of sympathy and respect.

b) Insulated Render and Cladding Association (INCA) Awards 2022

The Presiding Member stated that INCA was at the forefront of transforming the energy efficiency of homes and businesses in the UK. They aim to represent the External Wall Insulation industry through technical excellence and effective collaboration.

Swansea Council was recently shortlisted in two categories in the INCA Awards 2022. The categories being:

- i) External Wall Insulation (EWI) Excellence - Architectural Excellence or Environmental Impact.
- ii) Render Only – Insulated Placed Elsewhere. (More Homes – Colliers Way, Penlan).

She stated that Swansea Council had won the External Wall Insulation (EWI) Excellence - Architectural Excellence or Environmental Impact at the awards ceremony on 17 November 2022. The award was in relation to the De-carbonisation / EWI works at Jones Terrace, Evans Terrace & Wilks Row.

c) Welsh Government's Sustainable Schools Challenge

The Presiding Member congratulated Education's Capital Team for being shortlisted for their innovative and collaborative bid for Welsh Government's Sustainable Schools Challenge.

The Team's plan to develop and deliver a net zero carbon primary school build that can make a positive contribution to the environment and surrounding landscape has reached the short list stage. If successful at the next stage, the collaboration will include learners, staff, parents, community, and supply chains through all stages of design, construction, and operational life of a truly sustainable school in Swansea.

The Challenge will draw upon the sustainability aspects of the new curriculum and how our young learners translate this into their own 'sustainable community for learning'.

d) Welsh Housing Awards 2022

The Presiding Member stated that Swansea Council had won the Best Housing Story Award at the Welsh Housing Awards 2022. The Awards celebrate excellence within Wales' Housing sector. The award went to Swansea Council's "More Homes Team" for the Bryn House scheme.

The project was delivered during the pandemic, to provide additional permanent and temporary accommodation. It involved the purchase of a former education centre, refurbishment of the main building to provide 4 x 1-bedroom flats, and the purchase of 4 factory made 1-bedroom pods that were then craned into the site.

89. Announcements of the Leader of the Council.

a) Support Given by Swansea Council During Cost-of-Living Crisis

The Leader of Council stated that since the start of the year, the Council has paid out almost £20m in grants to hard-pressed families and individuals, including more than 76,000 cost of living payments, a further 40,000 discretionary cost of living payments, 20,000 fuel payments and 4,500 unpaid carers' payments.

Tens of thousands of families in communities across Swansea have benefited from millions of pounds in grants and other payments to help them through the cost-of-living crisis. But thousands more who are eligible for a £200 fuel support payment or a cost-of-living grant are being urged to get their applications in.

The fuel payment scheme runs until 5:00pm on 28 February 2023 and the discretionary cost of living payments scheme closes at the end of March 2023. Anyone who thinks they might be eligible but have not yet applied, should get their applications in soon.

The Welsh Government-funded support is in addition to any UK Government winter fuel payments made to pensioners via the Department for Work and Pensions. More details about the scheme, the online application form and FAQs are on the Council's website www.swansea.gov.uk/fuelsupport

b) Budget Update

The Leader of Council stated that since last meeting of Council, the UK Budget had been announced. The Chancellor of the Exchequer failed to announce any energy help for the public sector. Chosen specifically to exclude energy help for Schools, Care Homes, and Community. This was a political choice by the Conservative Government. He stated that he hoped that the Government would change its mind on this issue.

c) His Dark Materials

The Leader of Council stated that Councillor E J King would be opening the "His Dark Materials" Exhibition at the Glynn Vivian later that evening. It was a free exhibition open to all.

d) Christmas Parade

The Leader of Council thanked the Council's Special Events Team for hosting an excellent Christmas Parade recently. The Parade contained over 70 attractions and floats.

e) Together at Christmas

The Leader of Council stated that Swansea Council in partnership with JR Events & Catering will be running the Together at Christmas initiative again this year. The event aims to provide a free Christmas carvery lunch for the homeless, isolated and those in need. It will be held between 12-3.00pm on Tuesday, 6 December 2022 at the Brangwyn Hall. Councillors and others are encouraged to volunteer via email events@jr-eventsandcatering.co.uk

f) Major Projects - Blue Eden & Skyline

The Leader of Council provided updates on two major projects within Swansea, namely Blue Eden & Skyline.

g) Martin Nicholls – Chief Executive

The Leader of Council congratulated and welcomed Martin Nicholls to his first Council meeting since being appointed as Chief Executive of the City & County of Swansea.
