27 Disclosures of Personal and Prejudicial Interests.

In accordance with the Code of Conduct adopted by the City & County of Swansea, the following interests were declared:

Councillors J E Burtonshaw, M Durke, J A Hale, L James, M Jones, E J Kirchner, B J Rowlands, L J Tyler-Lloyd and L V Walton declared a personal interest in Minute 29 "Councillors ICT Allowances Policy – May 2022 & Beyond."

28 Minutes.

Resolved that the Minutes of the Democratic Services Committee held on 8 November 2021 be approved and signed as a correct record.

29 Councillors ICT Allowances Policy - May 2022 & Beyond.

The Head of Democratic Services and Head of Digital & Customer Services presented a joint report to review the "Councillors ICT Allowances Policy – May 2017 and Beyond" and recommend a May 2022 & Beyond version to Council. The amended Policy should ensure that Councillors and Statutory co-opted Members receive ICT provision suited to their needs and compliant with the determinations of the Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales (IRPW).

Resolved that:

- 1) The Head of Digital & Customer Services review the Councillors ICT Allowances amounts ensuring they are adequate for May 2022 & beyond and that the revised amounts be included in the budget process.
- 2) The reviewed and amended Councillors ICT Allowances Policy – May 2022 & beyond be agreed and recommended to Council for adoption subject to the following amendment(s) to Appendix A:

Paragraphs 4.2(a) and 5.1(a) be amended to read “They produce proof twice in a 5 year term of office of their Data and Telephone connection at their home”.

- 3) The Head of Digital & Customer Services provide a “Good Habits” Helpful Guide to Councillors setting out subjects such as Back Up & Sync etc.
- 4) Modern.gov software training be added to the Councillors Induction Programme.

30 Review of Councillors Handbook.

The Head of Democratic Services presented a report to review Sections A-C of the Councillors Handbook and to recommend the amended version for adoption by Council.

Resolved that the amendments proposed by the Head of Democratic Services in the Appendices to the report be recommended to Council for adoption subject to the following additional amendments:

Appendix B, paragraph 9 – replace “Both Teams” with “The Cabinet Office / DS Team.”

31 Workplan 2021-2022.

The Head of Democratic Services stated that whilst there were currently no agenda items scheduled for the next meeting, he anticipated that he would be in a position to present further items at the meeting scheduled for 21 March 2022.

The meeting ended at 4.29 pm

Agenda Item 4

Report of the Head of Democratic Services

Democratic Services Committee – 14 February 2022

Review of Councillors Handbook – Role Descriptions & Person Specifications

|------------------------------------|--|
| Purpose: | To review Section D of the Councillors Handbook – Role Descriptions & Person Specifications and to recommend the amended version for adoption by Council. |
| Policy Framework: | None. |
| Consultation: | Access to Services, Finance, Legal. |
| Recommendation(s): | It is recommended that: 1) The Welsh Local Government Association’s (WLGA) “Framework Member Role Descriptions and Person Specifications - June 2021” and the Swansea Council specific Role Descriptions as set out in Appendices A & B respectfully be recommended to Council for adoption as Section D of the Councillors Handbook. |
| Report Author: | Huw Evans |
| Finance Officer: | Ben Smith |
| Legal Officer: | Tracey Meredith |
| Access to Services Officer: | Rhian Millar |

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Councillors Handbook provides information to Councillors / Co-opted Members. Sections A-C of the Councillors Handbook was reviewed by the Democratic Services Committee on 10 January 2022. Section D “Role Descriptions & Person Specifications” was last reviewed in 2018.
- 1.2 The review aimed to ensure that the information was correct and reflected any new working arrangements.
- 1.3 The entire Councillors Handbook may be viewed at www.swansea.gov.uk/cllrshandbook

2. Section D - Role Descriptions & Person Specifications

2.1 Section D is currently mainly in line with the WLGA's Framework of Member Role Descriptions and Person Specifications – June 2021. However, there are a number of Swansea Council specific entries:

- i) Councillor Job Roles
- ii) Scrutiny Convener Role Description
- iii) Equality Member Champion - Role Description
- iv) Chair of Policy Development Committee

2.2 It is proposed that the current Section D be replaced in its entirety with the WLGA's Framework of Member Role Descriptions and Person Specifications as set out in Appendix A of the report.

2.3 The Swansea Council specific entries as set out in Appendix B of the report be added to those in Appendix A to form the new Section D of the Councillors Handbook.

3. Financial Implications

3.1 There are no financial implications associated with this report.

4. Legal Implications

4.1 There are no specific legal implications associated with this report.

5. Integrated Assessment Implications

5.1 The Council is subject to the Equality Act (Public Sector Equality Duty and the socio-economic duty), the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 and the Welsh Language (Wales) Measure, and must in the exercise of their functions, have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct prohibited by the Acts.
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- Foster good relations between people who share a protected characteristic and those who do not.
- Deliver better outcomes for those people who experience socio-economic disadvantage
- Consider opportunities for people to use the Welsh language
- Treat the Welsh language no less favourably than English.
- Ensure that the needs of the present are met without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs.

5.2 The Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2005 mandates that public bodies in Wales must carry out sustainable development. Sustainable development means the process of improving the economic, social, environmental and cultural well-being of Wales by taking action, in accordance with the sustainable development principle, aimed at achieving the 'well-being goals'.

- 5.3 Our Integrated Impact Assessment (IIA) process ensures we have paid due regard to the above. It also takes into account other key issues and priorities, such as poverty and social exclusion, community cohesion, carers, the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) and Welsh language.
- 5.4 An IIA screening has been undertaken and no adverse implications have been noted.
- 5.5 The review seeks to align Section D of the Councillors Handbook to match that of the WLGA Framework.

Background

This is a set of generic role descriptions and person specifications for elected members. They are applicable in any authority and are made available as suggestions rather than prescription.

The role descriptions set out the responsibilities and functions of the role of the elected member. The person specifications describe the qualities and skills required of the member in the role and can help when considering personal development.

Where members undertake more than one role it is anticipated that role descriptions would be combined. For example: Overview and Scrutiny committee chairs would be expected to undertake the role of, Elected member, Overview and Scrutiny Member and Overview and Scrutiny Chair.

These role descriptions are designed to be used alongside the Welsh Member Development \(Competency\) Framework which describes the skills knowledge and behaviours required of Councillors

This document has been produced collaboratively by the Welsh local Government Association, working with members and officers from all the authorities in Wales. It takes account of all the UK and Wales legislation affecting the role of members, including, most recently, the Local Government and elections (Wales) Act 2021.

Political Group Leader supplementary guidance

The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act places a duty on Group Leaders to take “Reasonable Steps” to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by the members of their group. The following note provides further interpretation of the Act in support of the Group Leaders’ role description.

- Group Leaders have a duty to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by members of their group in a Unitary Authority. This applies to those group members whenever they are acting or giving the impression of acting in their capacity as a member.
- This duty has been introduced by the Welsh Government to encourage high standards of behaviour from members, including civility and respect in all situations and towards all people. The duty is not intended to be onerous and will not cover everyone (clearly those members who do not belong to a group), but rather to be proportionate and helpful and encourage the prevention of inappropriate behaviour before it becomes a breach of the Code.
- All councillors already have a responsibility to report breaches of the Code of Conduct
- The Duty applies to Group Leaders for their group members whenever these members are for example acting on the Council, in political group meetings, in the community and on outside bodies such as Fire and Rescue Authorities, National Fire Authorities, Police Authorities, Community and Town Councils, Corporate Joint Committees and school governing bodies.
- In the case of outside bodies, the standards of conduct which apply are those set out by the body on which the group member is serving. If these are not available, the Council Code of Conduct applies.
- The Duty does not make Group Leaders accountable for the behaviour of their members as Conduct must be a matter of individual responsibility. However, Group Leaders must take “Reasonable steps” to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by the members of the group. And must cooperate with the standards committee and any subgroup of the committee in the exercise of the standards committee’s functions. And must have regard to guidance issued by Welsh Ministers on these matters.
- “Reasonable steps” might include Group Leaders:
 - Having informal discussions with and/or requesting training for members who may be showing early signs of inappropriate behaviour to ‘nip this in the bud’ before it becomes problematic or in danger of breaching the Code.
 - Working constructively with Standards committees to report compliance with their duty, any serious concerns about members’ behaviour which have not been remedied by informal actions, and training requirements for themselves and for their group members.
 - Working constructively with and supporting the Monitoring Officer in these matters
 - Acting as a positive role model for members, demonstrating the highest possible standards of behaviour, civility, and respect.
 - Maintaining an awareness of what constitutes very high standards of behaviour, civility, and respect, particularly with regard to equalities and diversity.
 - Working constructively with other group members on the council and on other councils to ensure the highest possible standards of behaviour both in the Council and throughout Wales.

- Welcoming and responding to concerns raised by Group members about behaviour in the group.
- Standards committees have a duty to monitor compliance by Political Group Leaders with their duties and advising, training or arranging to train leaders of political groups on the council about matters relating to their duties.
- Standards committees must give an annual report to council about their work including compliance of group Leaders with this duty.
- The sanctions which may be applied to group members acting inappropriately on an outside body are those set out by those bodies. Where sanctions are not set out, the Council rules apply.
- If a member has breached the Code of Conduct and is suspended, they are only suspended in the capacity as a member of one relevant authority. They would have to be disqualified for it to apply to their capacity as a member of more than one relevant authority. (Local Government Investigations (Functions of Monitoring Officers and Standards Committees (Wales) regs 2001)
- “A group leader who fails to comply with the new duty in a meaningful way may potentially be regarded as bringing their office into disrepute, in breach of paragraph 6(1)(a) of the Code” The Public Services Ombudsman for Wales, The Code of Conduct for members of local authorities in Wales May 2021.

Member Champion Purpose and Role

What are Member Champions?

Member Champions exist to provide a voice for traditionally underrepresented groups, or issues which need to be kept at the forefront of council business although they may not be the responsibility of any individual or committee.

Member Champions, (sometimes called lead members) are elected members who in addition to their other council responsibilities make sure that the issue or group that they are championing are taken into account when council policy is being developed and decisions are made. Members act as champions in areas such as children, homelessness, equalities, older people, young people, scrutiny, member support and development, health improvement and anti-poverty. There is a statutory role for a lead member of children's and young people's services with a responsibility for over-seeing the arrangements made under sections 25 and 26 of the 2004 Children Act.

Guidance on undertaking the role with regard to the subject knowledge that members need is sometimes available from the outside bodies associated with the issue being championed for example the toolkit for older peoples' champions from the LGA. Otherwise they will be reliant on their authority for guidance in the subject they lead on and also their role as lead member in this area.

What do they do?

Typically, the lead member will:

- Make sure that their area of interest is taken into account when developing policy or making decisions
- Ask questions about performance and resourcing for the area
- Raise the profile of the area and make the authority aware of good practice.
- Engage with external bodies who work in the area
- Engage with other officers and members in relation to the role.
- Engage with community groups with an interest/stake in the area ☑ Report action to the council

How does their role fit within the corporate structure?

This will vary according to the area/issue that is being championed and how the authority functions. There is potential for confusion and overlap between the role of the member champion and those of the relevant executive member or overview and scrutiny members. The champion role itself could be undertaken by either the relevant executive member or a non executive member.

It is therefore important that members and officers work together to agree roles and action for the area being championed and that there are mechanisms for lead members to report on their activities. It is helpful for the authority to draft a protocol which sets out what powers champions have and do not have, such as whether or not they are able to make decisions on behalf of the authority. Similarly, the appointment of champions varies between authorities, and includes appointments being made by full council meetings or by the leader.

The Role Description

It is difficult to create a role description that fits with the different roles expected of champions and how they operate in the different authorities' structures. The following is a generic model which will require local adaptation, particularly to reflect the difference that may exist between a statutory role, one undertaken by an executive member and a non-executive lead.

Member Champion Role Description

1. Accountabilities

- To Full Council

2. Role Purpose and Activities
