

Children have the best start in life to be the best they can be

Outcome

Primary Driver (when...)

Secondary Driver (so we need to ensure...)

Children have the best start in life to be the best that they can be

Parents are well prepared for birth and early childhood

All children develop to their full potential

Children are safe from harm

Support services are high quality and well integrated

Parents are supported to develop their skills, knowledge and confidence

Parents lead a healthy lifestyle and can access the local and natural environment

Parents can access good employment

Families live in a good standard of housing and enjoy healthy family relationships

Children develop good positive attachments with parents/carers

Children with additional needs are identified and supported

Children have good quality health and well-being

Children develop speech and language successfully

Children's needs are identified at the earliest stage

Homes are safe and free from violence

Data and information sharing between partners is effective

Services are prioritised and aligned to support the mental health of parents/carers and address drug and alcohol misuse

Communication and collaboration between partners is strong

People live and age well

Outcome

Primary Driver (when...)

Secondary Driver (so we need to ensure...)

People Live Well and Age Well

People have the best possible level of health and wellbeing

People are as independent as possible and enjoy a good quality of life

People are valued, listened to and are able to have a voice, choice and control

People feel safe in their home and community

Key health and wellbeing messages are identified, targeted and promoted

Every citizen has access to health and wellbeing opportunities

Environments that encourage health and wellbeing are created, sustained and protected

People are supported to access information, advice and assistance

Health and social care services work together closely to provide services in the community

People are supported to learn, work and live well

Individuals and communities are supported to be more connected

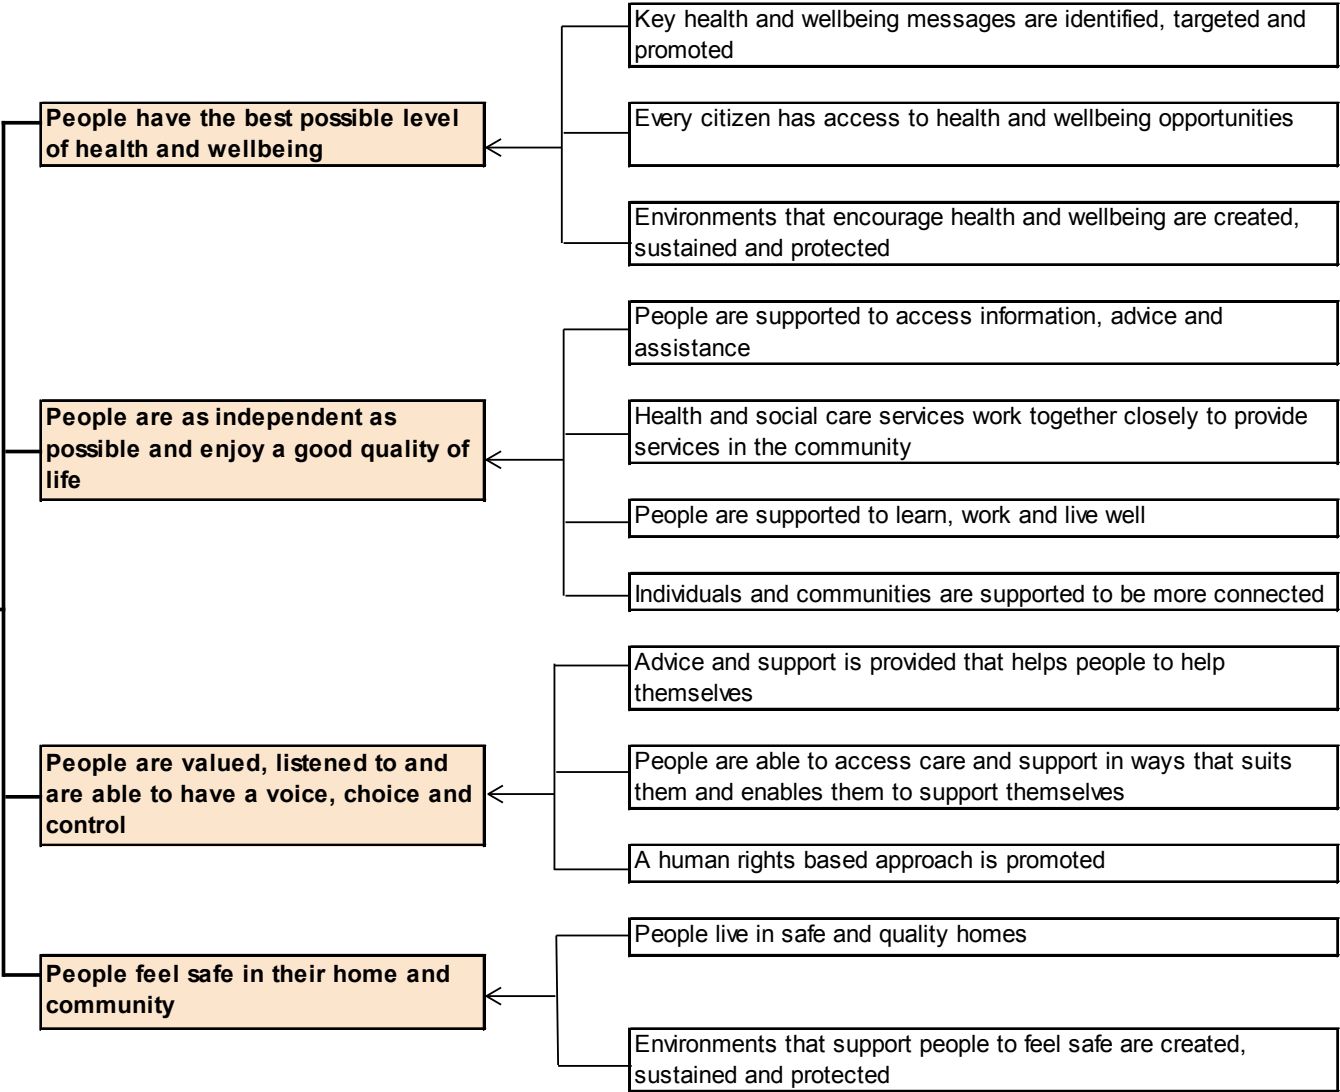

Advice and support is provided that helps people to help themselves

People are able to access care and support in ways that suits them and enables them to support themselves

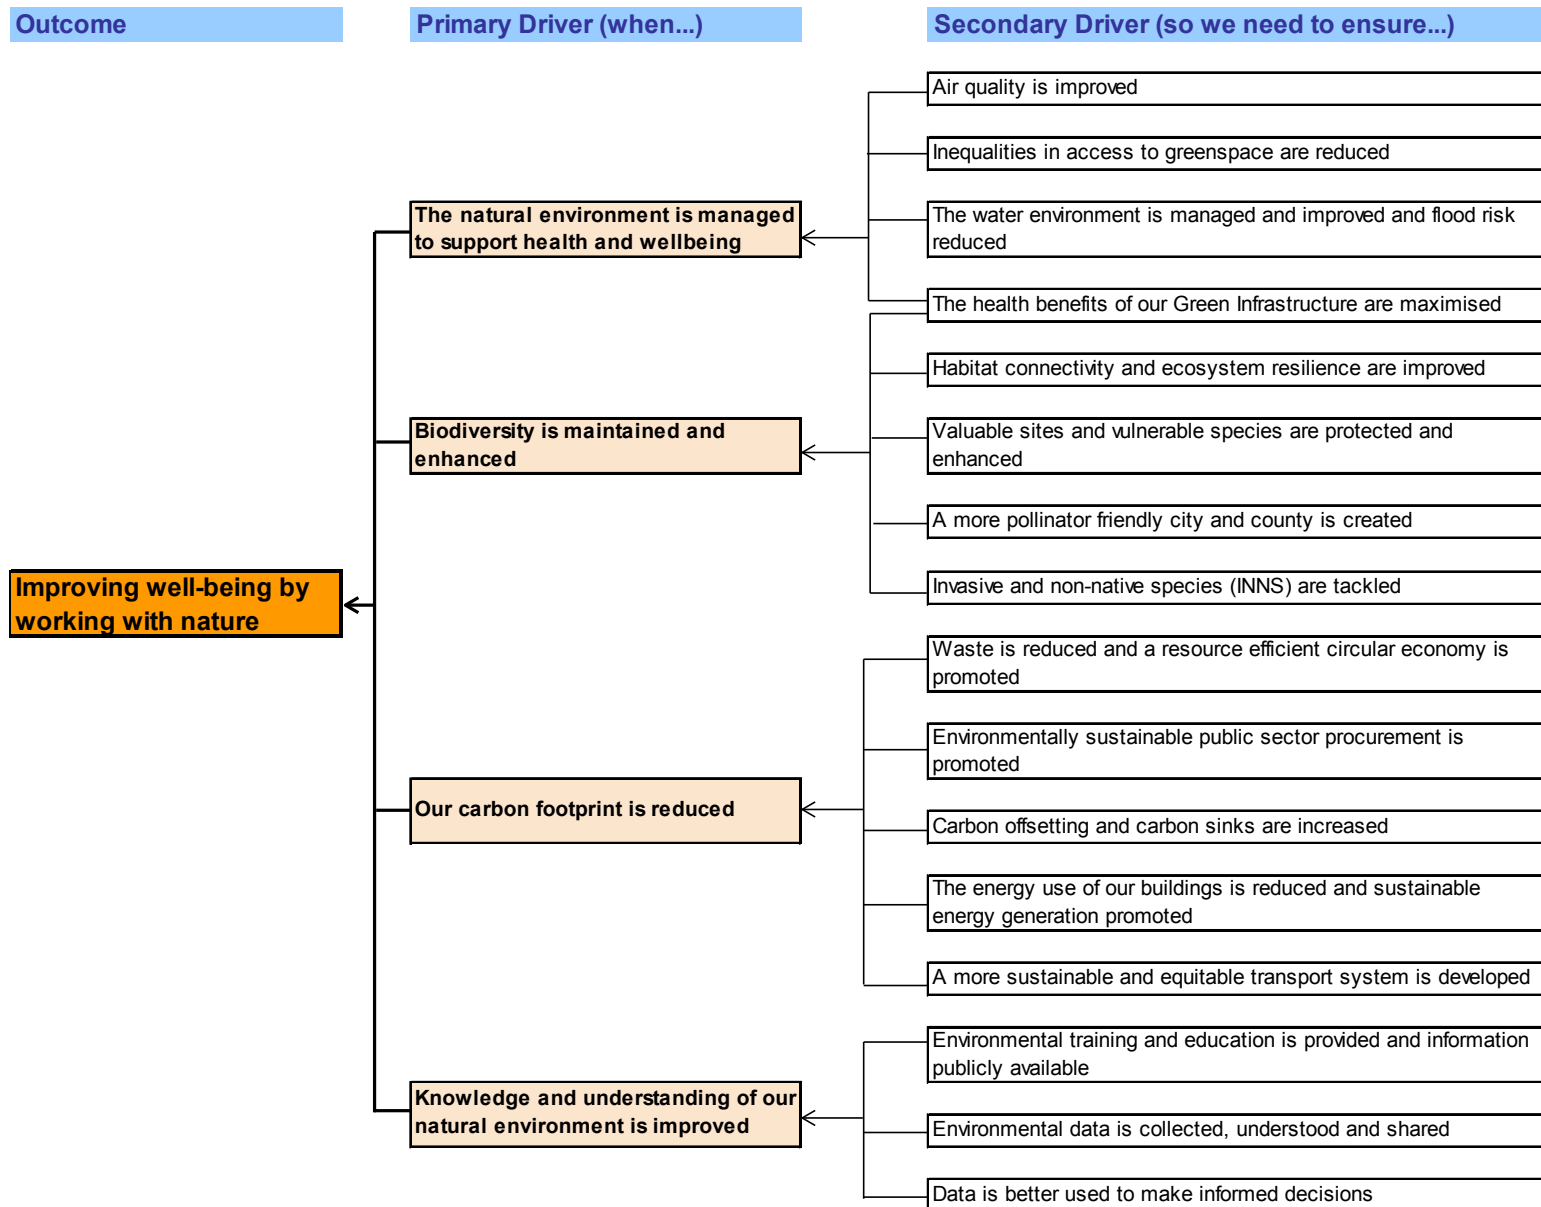

A human rights based approach is promoted

People live in safe and quality homes

Environments that support people to feel safe are created, sustained and protected

Improving well-being by working with nature

Stronger communities – communities are strong and resilient with a sense of pride and belonging

