1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Local Democracy & Boundary Commission for Wales is reviewing the Electoral Arrangements for the City and County of Swansea with a view to considering and formulating proposals for future arrangements. (Section 29 of the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Act 2013).
- 1.2 The Commission has asked for this Authority's Initial Observations on the review prior to them formulating their Draft Proposals. The Commission ask that this Authority submits for consideration a scheme or schemes for electoral arrangements based on the existing Communities and Community Wards. Maps drawn to scale showing the boundaries of the suggested electoral wards is also required.

- 1.3 The Authority has assisted the Commission in publicising the review by posting notices in the Guildhall, Civic Centre, Libraries and Community Centres. Additionally, the Authority has informed all 24 Community / Town Councils and Friends of Parks.
- 1.4 The deadline for submitting the Authority's Initial Observations to the Commission is 26 July 2018.
- 1.5 The second stage of the review will start with the publication of the Commission's Draft Proposals. This will present a further opportunity for comments and representations to be made. The Commission will then consider those representations and prepare their Final Proposals. These will be published and submitted to the Welsh Government, who may give effect to the proposals either as submitted or with modifications.

2. General Points Relating to the Commissions Review

- 2.1 The 12 week period for an Authority to come up with meaningful Initial Observations is unrealistic. The Authority suggests that for future Reviews, the Commission should look to expand that initial period to 16 weeks in order to allow greater opportunities for Local Authorities to consider such a review.
- 2.2 In light of the above, the Authority is prepared to assist the Commission through its process of preparing its Draft Proposals and will answer any questions and engage as the Commission sees fit.
- 2.3 Dealing with Boundary changes in isolation is not an effective use of resource. The Authority favours co-terminus boundaries and notes the complexity and issues caused when boundaries no longer mirror the other building blocks for electoral arrangements. As such, this Authority suggests that future Boundary Reviews (Community, Local Government, Parliamentary etc.) should be carried out at the same time

3. Councillor : Elector Ratio

- 3.1 The Authority has tried to keep within a variance of +/- 10% of the Commissions guidance of 1 Councillor to every 2,500 Electors. However, given Community restraints especially of smaller Communities and the potential development linked to the Local Development Plan, this has not always been possible. The Authority will argue that special circumstances will be required in those instances.

4. Electorate Population Forecast

- 4.1 The electorate population forecasts are based on projected housing growth levels documented in Swansea's Local Development Plan (LDP) and the latest annual Joint Housing Land Availability Study (JHLAS), co-ordinated by the Council's Planning Policy team.

- 4.2 The detail on the sites is in Statement ED037 “Housing Site Trajectories and Land Supply”, available via the link www.swansea.gov.uk/ldpexamination (Appendix 3, from page 15 onwards). This document contains details of housing sites and the number of units with completion anticipated during the full plan period (2010-25) - by year, location and component type (four in all, from commitments to larger strategic areas).
- 4.3 As part of the calculations, sites with any completions forecast between 2017 and 2023 were individually assigned to their relevant ward (with some larger sites split across wards). For each ward, the calculations sum the projected housing units by type and year (2017-23 total). These projected ward totals are then applied to the latest baseline figure of housing stock by ward (using Valuation Office Agency data, 2017), from which %-increases are applied to the current (2018) electorate figures, with communities matched to their relevant ward.
- 4.4 For 9 of the 36 wards, there are no housing units anticipated for completion in this timeframe; therefore no electorate population increase is forecast in these areas. Elsewhere are wards where some large site/unit development is currently predicted to take place before 2023. Inevitably, this leads to some significant differences in forecast levels of growth at a ward level, e.g. Llangyfelach and Penllergaer (both over 35%), against a county average of around 7%.

5. Process adopted by Swansea Council

- 5.1 During the initial consultation period of 12 weeks (4 May to 26 July 2018), Swansea Council followed the guidance set out by the Commission as detailed in its “Electoral Reviews: Policy and Practice 2016” publication, the Commissions letter of 27 April 2018 and the information set out during the Commissions presentation to Council on 26 April 2018.
- 5.2 Meetings with Councillors and dedicated Electoral Ward meetings with Councillors were held on 30-31 May & 4 June 2018. The Head of Democratic Services continued to meet and correspond with Councillors during June and July 2018.
- 5.3 The terms of reference of the Authority’s Constitution Working Group (CWG) were amended in order to allow that Group to consider the views of the Electoral Ward Councillors. The CWG is made up of the Presiding Member, Political Group leaders and some other Councillors. This in turn led to a report to Council on 26 July 2018
- 5.4 The CWG met on 11 July 2018 and considered an initial view of general issues, approaches and identified specific geographical areas where a fuller consideration of arrangements seemed most to be appropriate, having due consideration to the Commission’s Council Size Policy.

Gower is a huge geographical entity. Gower Electoral Ward far exceeds the Commissions guidance on Councillor : Elector Ratio. The Pennard Electoral Ward falls slightly short of the ratio. The Authority therefore looked at ways to address both areas by shifting natural areas between the two areas. Proposal The Ilston / Llanilltyd Gwŷr Community (426) made up of Ilston Community Ward (188), Nicholaston Community Ward (85) and Penmaen Community Ward (153) all currently within the Gower Electoral Ward to be moved into the Pennard Electoral Ward. It creates a 5 year projected electorate of 2,592. Additional Comments may be submitted by Political Groups.

• Gowerton East Community Ward			1,776	1,848
• Gowerton West Community Ward			2,193	2,282
Gowerton is a distinct Community and village. It borders with 5 other Electoral Wards: Dunvant, Kingsbridge, Penclawdd and Fairwood Wards, all of which are Communities in their own right. With the exception of Waunarlwydd (Cockett Ward), the other Communities are split from Gowerton by approximately 1-3km of farmland / common land. Therefore merging with a neighbouring Ward is not an option. The fifth Ward that Gowerton Ward borders with is the Cockett Ward although that sits in a different Parliamentary Constituency (Swansea West). If Gowerton had to merge with another area, the Waunarlwydd element of Cockett Ward would be the obvious choice due to the natural links between both Communities. The difficulty in such a merger would be the crossing of a Parliamentary Boundary which would also need to be addressed in due course. As such, any links between Gowerton and the Waunarlwydd element of Cockett Ward have been discounted. There is also an anomaly in that a very small number of properties in the Berthlwyd area should be moved into Penclawdd Electoral Ward. The detail of this will follow in the next stage of consultation. Proposal Increase the Electoral Ward to 2 Councillors as the workload for one Councillor is impossible. Additional Comments may be submitted by Political Groups.

Llangyfelach as a Ward appears logical on a map; however, when considered against the road network, it shows that you have to travel through Penllergaer Ward to get from the Community of Llangyfelach to the Community of Pontlliw & Tircoed.
Proposal Extract the Pontlliw & Tircoed Community from the Llangyfelach Electoral Ward and create a Pontlliw & Tircoed Electoral Ward with its footprint being on its existing Community Boundary.

Pennard Electoral Ward falls slightly short of the Commissions guidance on Councillor : Elector Ratio. The Gower Electoral Ward exceeds the ratio. The Authority therefore looked at ways to address both areas by shifting natural areas between the two areas. Additionally, there are 2 properties on Old Kittle Road which currently sit within the Bishopston Electoral Ward but would more logically sit within Pennard Electoral Ward. Proposal The Ilston / Llanilltyd Gwŷr Community (426) made up of Ilston Community Ward (188), Nicholaston Community Ward (85) and Penmaen Community Ward (153) all currently within the Gower Electoral Ward to be moved into the Pennard Electoral Ward. The Bishopston Electoral Ward elements (6) of Barlands Cottage, 1 Old Kittle Road (2) and Limberlost, 2 Old Kittle Road (4) be added to the Pennard Electoral Ward. It creates a 5 year projected electorate of 2,776.
