

Report of the Convener of the Education Performance Scrutiny Panel

12 September 2019

Briefing and Q&A Elective Home Education

Purpose:	To look at and discuss Elective Home Education
Content:	A briefing and Q&A session on Elective Home Education
Councillors are being asked to:	The Panel will consider and discuss the information provided and give their views and recommendations to the Cabinet Member via a letter.

Introduction

At the Panel's Work Planning meeting in June 2019, it was agreed that the panel would schedule a briefing on Elective Home Education in its Work Programme for 2019/20.

It will consist of a presentation and a Question and Answer Session. The essence of the presentation will be to provide Members with an update on current and emerging provision in relation to Effective Home Education.

In attendance will be Susan Griffiths (Education Welfare officer) and Helen Morgan Rees (Head of Achievement and Partnership Service).
