This is an IIA Screening for the report by the Tackling Poverty Service on the recommendations from the Audit Wales 'Together We Can – Community Resilience and Self-Reliance'. The report from Audit Wales looks at evidence from local authorities across Wales on different approaches to supporting communities to develop resilience and self-reliance. The recommendations focus on each local authority conducting a self-assessment of their current position in order to identify actions and improvements.

The Adult Services Scrutiny Panel is being asked to consider the report and give its views / make recommendations to the relevant Cabinet Member.

There is no impact for the report itself. Recommendations made by the committee to inform future activity may require further investigation through the full IIA process which would be actioned at the appropriate time.

Q2 What is the potential impact on the following: the impacts below could be positive (+) or negative (-)

Integrated Impact Assessment Screening Form

The self-assessment evaluation has potential associated actions for cross authority services.

Q7 Will this initiative result in any changes needed to the external or internal website?

Yes No If yes, please provide details below

Not at this stage, potentially in the future in relation to the resulting actions.

Q8 What is the cumulative impact of this proposal on people and/or communities when considering all the impacts identified within the screening and any other key decisions affecting similar groups/ service users made by the organisation?

(You may need to discuss this with your Service Head or Cabinet Member to consider more widely if this proposal will affect certain groups/ communities more adversely because of other decisions the organisation is making. For example, financial impact/poverty, withdrawal of multiple services and whether this is disadvantaging the same groups, e.g., disabled people, older people, single parents (who are mainly women), etc.)

There is no impact for the report itself.

Recommendations made by the committee to inform future activity may require further investigation through the IIA process which would be actioned at the appropriate time.
