Co-productive approaches with stakeholders including internal and external partners and people with lived experience of poverty will continue to shape our strategic delivery going forward in relation to Tackling Poverty and Enabling Communities. This will include our continuing work with the Swansea Poverty Truth Commission, ensuring the voice of lived experience informs and shapes our priorities and activities. Our current efforts to refresh the Council’s Tackling Poverty – which has been developed with engagement and insight from the public and will shortly be going for public consultation - will also establish our future plans to embed the principles of co-production in our long-term commitments to tackling poverty and enabling communities.
